ANNUAL PUBLICATION OF
FAIRFAX HALL
WAYNESBORO, VIRGINIA

In Memoriam

MRS. MARTHA WRIGHT MORROW

Hostess at Fairfax Hall

1960-1967

MRS. MAE WALLACE EPES

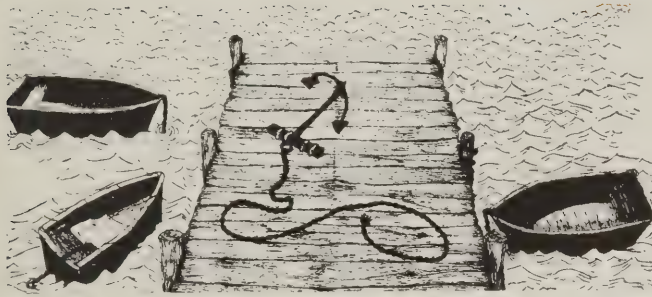

This issue of CHAIN & ANCHORS is dedicated to one who has spent twelve years of sleepless nights taking care of the Fairfax girls and who will, we hope, be taking care of us for at least twelve more years — Mama Epes.

Dedication

Foreword

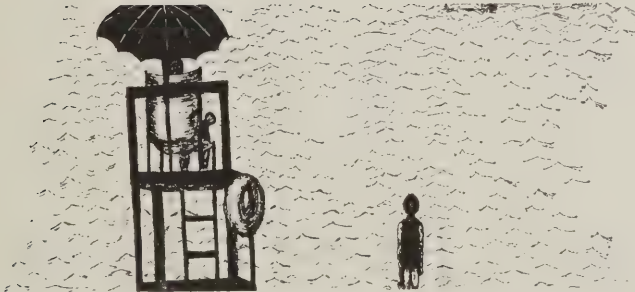

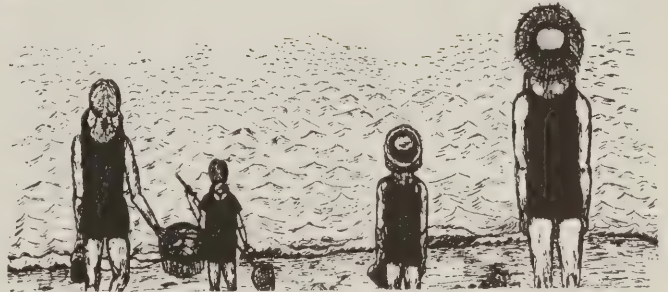

A beach consists of expanses of sand with each grain contributing to its vastness. So it is with memories. Each contributes to the magnitude of one's memories. Memories, as grains of sand, are formed with time. Each memory is valuable and many are a joy to recall. We hope that this issue of CHAIN AND ANCHORS will help you to recall your fond, happy memories of Fairfax Hall in your "Sands of Time."

NEILL IRENE BELL

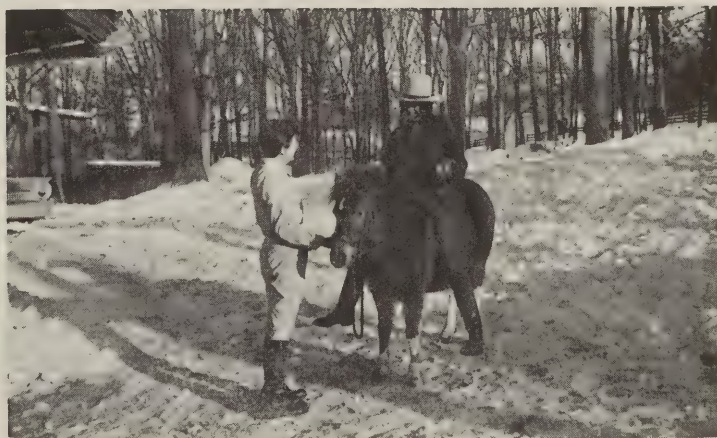

High Point, North Carolina

Vice President, Sophomore Class; President, Junior Class; President, Student Association, '68; Student Association Board, '67, '68; Athletic Association '66, '67, '68; Athletic Association Board, '67; Treasurer, Athletic Association, '67; Secretary, Riding Club, '67; Riding Club, '66, '67, '68; Boots and Saddle Club, '67, '68; Secretary, Boots and Saddle Club, '68; Show Team, '67, '68; Spanish Club, '68; Hockey Team, '66, '67; Intramurals, '66, '67, '68; May Court, '68

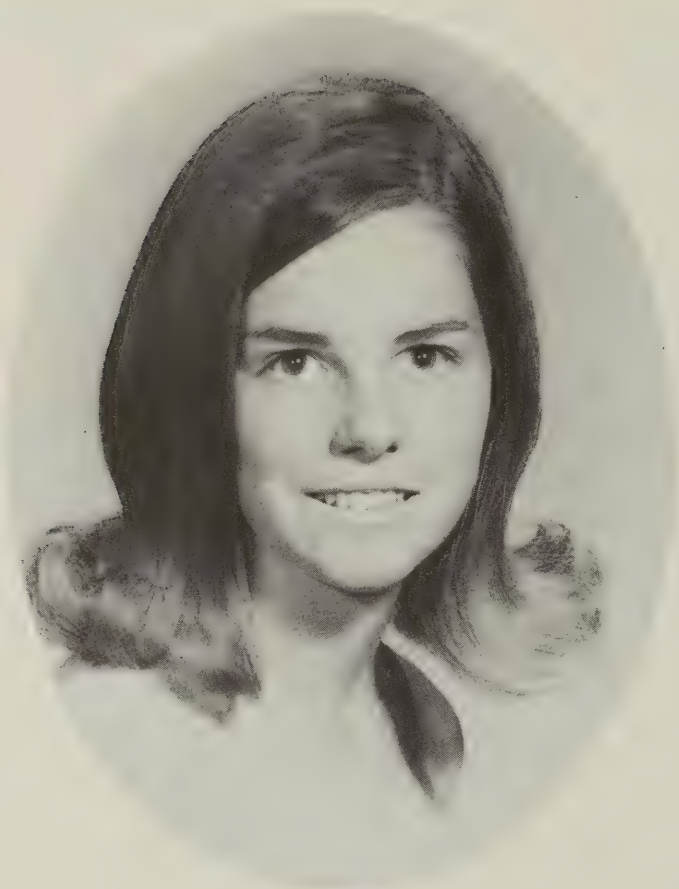

I, Irene Bell, with tears in my eyes, leave all my love and Charlie Brown with "P". To Clare, Tricia, and Narda I leave my love for a certain stable. (Y'all take care of Mrs. P.) To Valerie I leave many cherished moments. In reality I shall never completely leave any of you, for a great part of me will always remain at Fairfax.

Mr. Neill Bell and Irene Bell

Okay! So I'm long and I'm tall, but I'm not from Texas.

MARY KATHERINE BOONE

Ahoskie, North Carolina

Spanish Club, '67, '68; Intramurals, '67, '68; Basketball Team, '67; Athletic Association, '67, '68; Hall Chatter, '68

I, Mary, do sadly leave all the wonderful times I have had at Fairfax. To Gwen, Robin Ligon, and Marshall I will all my memories and another happy year at the Hall.

Just a few more PINK SLIPS and we'll have wall paper!

Mr. W. T. Boone and Mary Boone

VICTORIA VAN ZANDT BRITTON

Charlotte, North Carolina

Choir, '68; Intramurals, '67, '68; Spanish Club, '67, '68; Hall Chatter, '68

I do hereby will to all the girls at Fairfax the most wonderful years of their lives, those they spend at Fairfax. To Wriston Jones I leave the memories of Ring Figure, and to Carol Wandke I will a senior year that will be just as wonderful as mine was. To anyone who is brave enough, I will my room, 112. I leave sadly with tears in my eyes.

Mr. William J. Britton, Jr. and Victoria Britton

Okay, who wants to go home for Long Weekend with me now?

ESTHER KENDRICK BROWN

Harrington Park, New Jersey

Riding Club, '66; Glee Club, '67; Choir, '67; Fairfax Players, '68; Intramurals, '68; National Thespian Society, '68

I, Esther Brown, do hereby will to Lucille Jeanes all our talks in the smoker and all empty boxes—I really didn't burn your letters, Lu! To Myra Burns I leave the miseries of room 117. To Mae I leave the infirmary.

See, he does squeak!

Mr. Edward M. Brown, Jr. and Esther Brown

PATRICIA RUTH BROWN

I, Patricia Brown, with a tear in my eye, do leave to Clare "panic" and a deep consciousness of life; to Nard'a, many trail rides across the mountain and a belief in the great Pumpkin; to Mary Lou, "Salt, Pepper" and a will; to Mary Crew, the spirit of Alabama and George C. Wallace; and to the rest of the school, a hope for another wonderful year. To each member of the faculty and staff I give my deepest thanks and my best wishes and the hope that they will continue to care. Now, after four long, but too short, and happy but sad, years I leave, taking with me many cherished memories and a few precious friendships.

Mr. Douglas Brown and Patricia Brown

"Panic"

BARBARA LYNN CALHOUN

I, "Navy," do hereby leave my ability to get pink slips to Lu; hockey to Sissie; my love to Kathy K.; my room to "P" and Cookie; and now I leave, taking with me many happy memories of Fairfax.

No! It's my security!

Mr. E. H. Calhoun and Barbara Calhoun

ELISA ELLIS CALLAWAY

Covington, Georgia

Spanish Club, '67, '68; Dance Club, '67, '68; Cheerleader, '68; Athletic Association, '68; May Queen, '68

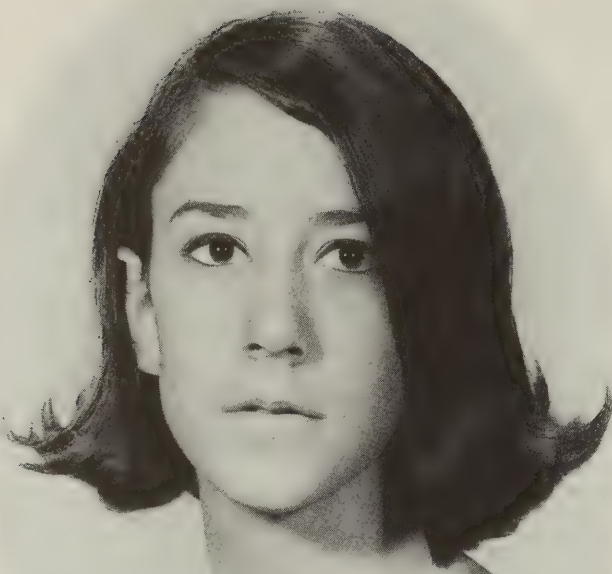

I, Lisa Callaway, leave to Valerie the thrill of Ring Figure and many, many unforgettable memories; to Jane and Mary Lou I leave another year of cheering; to Madelon, many more trips through the Atlanta airport; to my little sister, Viv, another wonderful year at Fairfax; and to all my other friends, I hope their years here mean as much to them as mine have meant to me. These two short years will always be cherished memories. Now I sadly leave with the hope that my remaining years of school will be as meaningful to me as those at Fairfax.

Mr. Ernest E. Callaway and Elisa Callaway

Three cheers for the Mod Squad?

I, Holly, do hereby will to my little sister, Mary, the best happiness at Fairfax, to Holly M., my name, to "P" a great Senior year, to Cook, the weekend in Aboskie, to the Junior class, a wonderful Ring Figure, and to everyone, I want to express many thanks for my rewarding years at Fairfax. I now sadly leave with many wonderful memories.

Mr. William J. Bull and Holly Compton

Hurry, Holly, the bus is leaving!

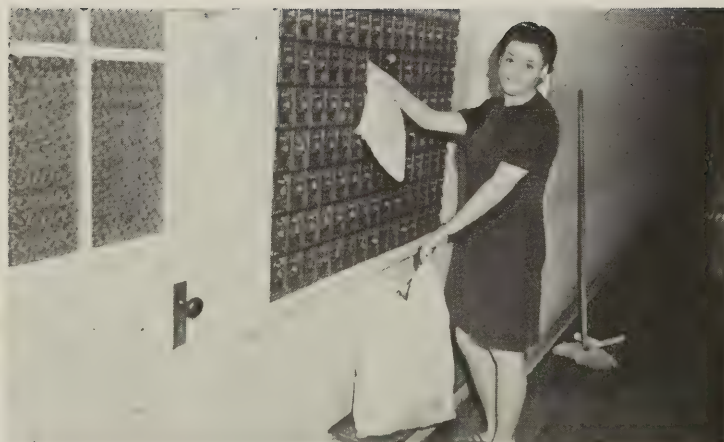

ELLEN CLARE DAVENPORT

Greer, South Carolina

Spanish Club, '66; Vespers Committee, '67; Hall Chatter Staff, '68; Chain and Anchors Staff, '68; Glee Club, '68

I, Clare, leave to the Senior Class of '69 and Ellen memories of a wonderful Ring Figure; F. M. S. to Alison and Leslie; S. M. A. to Norah; and A. M. A. to Winnie Sue and Debbie. I leave my room on the Infirmary Wing in the loving care of its next occupants and a great year for the Class of '69. I sadly leave, taking with me four years filled with memories.

Would you believe?

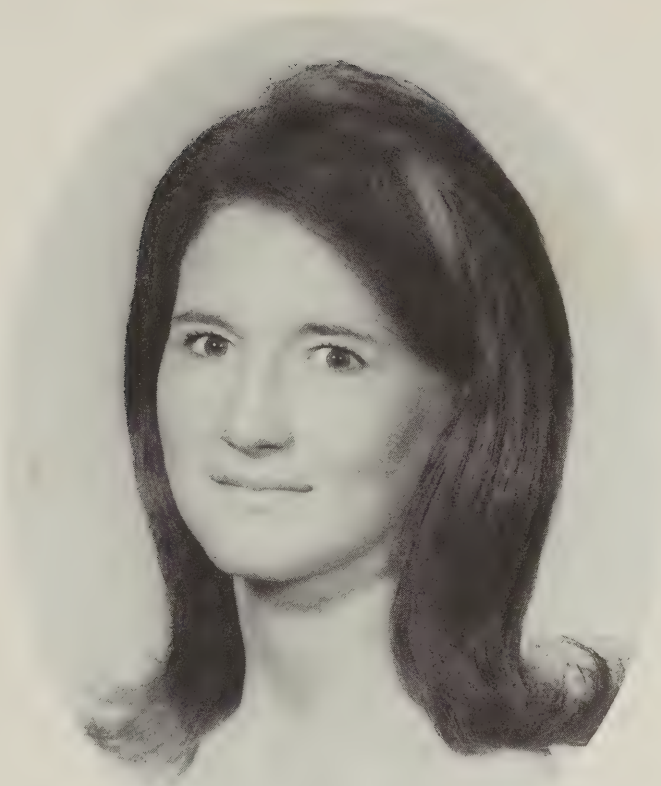

Mr. Dan D. Davenport and Clare Davenport

HELEN ELIZABETH FARR

Williamsport, Pennsylvania

Spanish Club, '67, '68; Intramurals, '67, '68; Riding Club, '68; Fairfax Players, '68; National Thespian Society, '68

I, Helen, do hereby leave my love and patriotism for A.M.A. to Winnie Sue and Robin; my study hall seat to Barb Boltz; the infirmary wing to Debbie Prather; and my memories of a wonderful Ring Figure to Lindana, Debbie, and Roomie. I also leave my many, many thanks to all those who have made my two years here at Fairfax the most enriching of my life. To the class of '69, I leave wishes for a wonderful senior year! I now depart with a sadness in my heart.

Mr. Verus LaRue Farr and Helen Farr

I'm hurrying! — I'm hurrying!!!

I, Sandy, do hereby will
A dream come true past every hill,
A new-found joy on dreary days,
A friend to help in many ways.

But all these things won't come by chance,
It must be you that will advance.
So live each day for something new,
And with this said, I bid adieu.

May Day 2000.

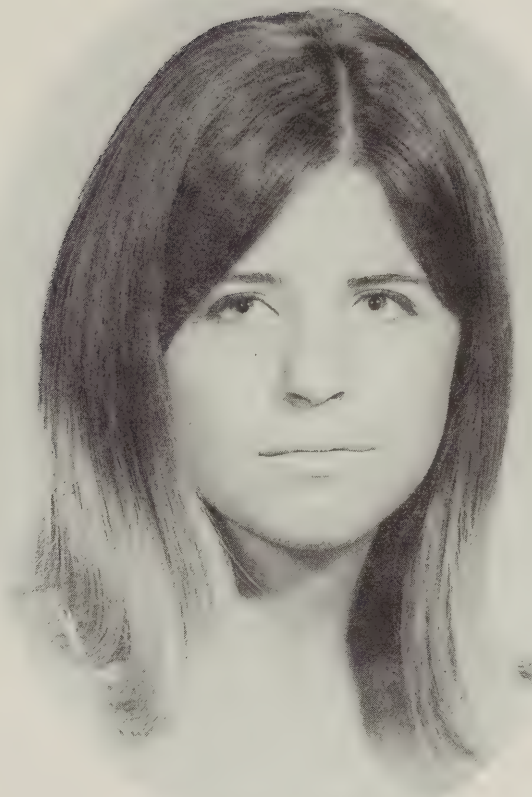

Mr. Alexander P. Kotarides and Sandra Kotarides

MARY LINN LIGON

Alexandria, Virginia

Spanish Club, '67, '68; Intramurals, '67, '68; Lifeguard, '67, '68; Athletic Association, '68; Glee Club, '68

I, Linn Ligon, first, leave the Juniors my best wishes for a wonderful senior year; a great Ring Figure and my memories to Kathy; my bus trips home to Glenda; my initials to Mae Mae; and my love to Charlotte. 'Bye now.

Colonel W. B. Ligon and Linn Ligon

No, Jane—please! No mustache!

PATRICIA BASKERVILLE LIGON

Raleigh, North Carolina

Spanish Club, '67, '68; Riding Club, '67, '68; Intramurals, '67, '68; Athletic Association, '68; Drill Team, '68

I, Patricia Ligon, wish all the happiness and luck to next year's Senior Class. I leave to my sister, Robin, as much fun as I've had and to Gwen, Sara, Elizabeth, and Marshall my love and best wishes.

Marty, quit cheating.

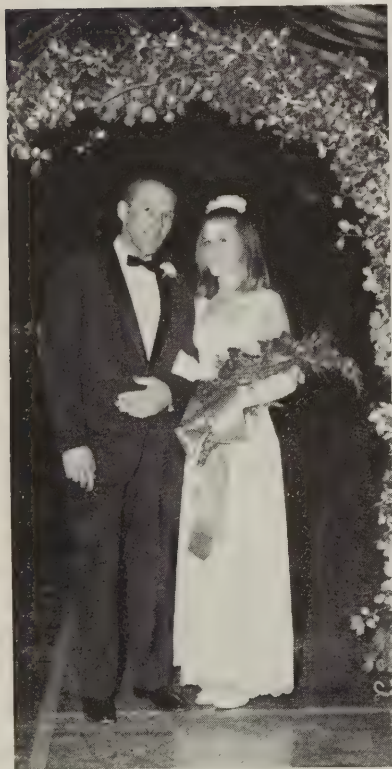

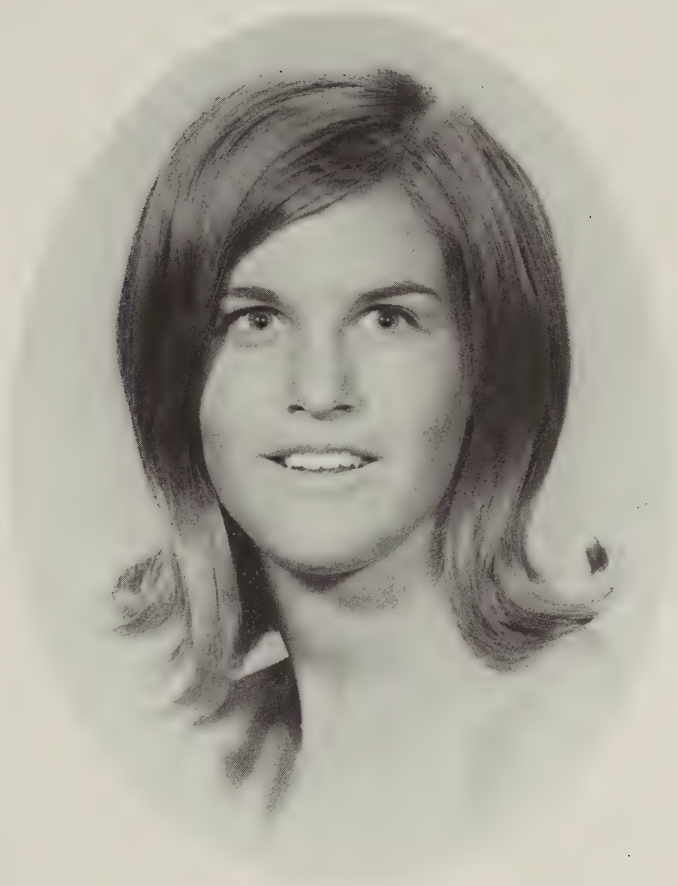

Dr. J. Henry Ligon, Jr. and Patricia Ligon memories.

Mr. A. B. Pritchard and Betty Pritchard

But y'all! I can't see without them!

BARBARA ANNE ROUGHTON

Norfolk, Virginia

French Club, '66, '67, '68; Treasurer, Sophomore Class; Glee Club, '68; Intramurals, '67, '68

I, "Row Roughton," leave behind three years of laughs and tears that I shall never forget. I leave to Valerie and Kathy a great senior year; to Cookie I leave one faded white shirt; and to Jane D. I leave wonderful memories of Monday and Thursday afternoons. To everyone else I leave the wish that their years at Fairfax will be as memorable as mine.

Mr. J. R. Roughton and Barbara Roughton

It's that time again.

I, Marty VanDyke, leave to Sandy all the moon pies she can eat and all my wishes for her future success and happiness. To May and Madelon and all the juniors, I leave all the happy memories of my senior year and my best wishes for their future success.

Mr. Claude H. VanDyke and Marty VanDyke

This is where it all started.

JANE ANGLISS WALSH

Staunton, Virginia

Intramurals, '66, '67, '68; French Club, '66, '67; Riding Club, '66, '67, '68; President, Riding Club, '67; Athletic Association, '66, '67, '68; Athletic Association Board, '67; Horse Show Team, '66, '67, '68; Drill Team, '66, '67; Boots and Saddle Club, '67, '68; Basketball Team, '68; May Court, '68

I, Jane Walsh, do hereby leave to Mary a certain chair; to Tricia, a trip from basketball to riding three days a week; my love to Gussie and Leslie; to Lucille, a wonderful Ring Figure and my ability to say the wrong thing at the wrong time; to Stephanie, my love for a certain big black horse; to Mrs. "P" and the rest of the faculty, many thanks. I now sadly leave.

Sometimes I don't know whether I'm coming or going.

Mr. Frederick H. Walsh and Jane Walsh

MARY CASE WEIR

Greenwich, Connecticut

Glee Club, '66, '68; Hockey Team, '67, '68; Basketball Team, '67, '68; Tennis Team, '66, '67, '68; Porpoise Club, '68; Intramurals, '66, '67, '68; Athletic Association, '67, '68; French Club, '68; May Court, '68

I, Mary Weir, leave a few things of sentimental value. To "Butterball" I leave Ed, laughter, and my love always; to Cameron, team spirit; to Cookie, "Billy and Sue" and many, many laughs; to Julia Brownley, basketball practice and all of its tortures; to Lyn Daniel, a year's supply of typing paper; to "P Champ," the north and a wonderful friendship; to Mrs. Blackburn, a deep admiration and affection; to Miss Brinsdon, my unfailing ability to do push-ups. I now depart from Fairfax, taking all my possessions except part of my heart . . . for you have given me so much.

Mr. E. T. Weir and Mary Weir

Oh! Come on; they're not that bad.

PAMELA ROGERS

I will my riding ability (?) to Winnie; my constant state of bankruptcy to all those with money; my haircuts to my dates; my trouble-making curiosity to Sissy; and my never-ending pink slips to Sally.

Quit? . . . Never!

Mr. G. B. Hubbard and Pam White

JENNY STONE WHITTEMORE

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Intramurals, '67, '68; Hockey Team, '68; Athletic Association, '68

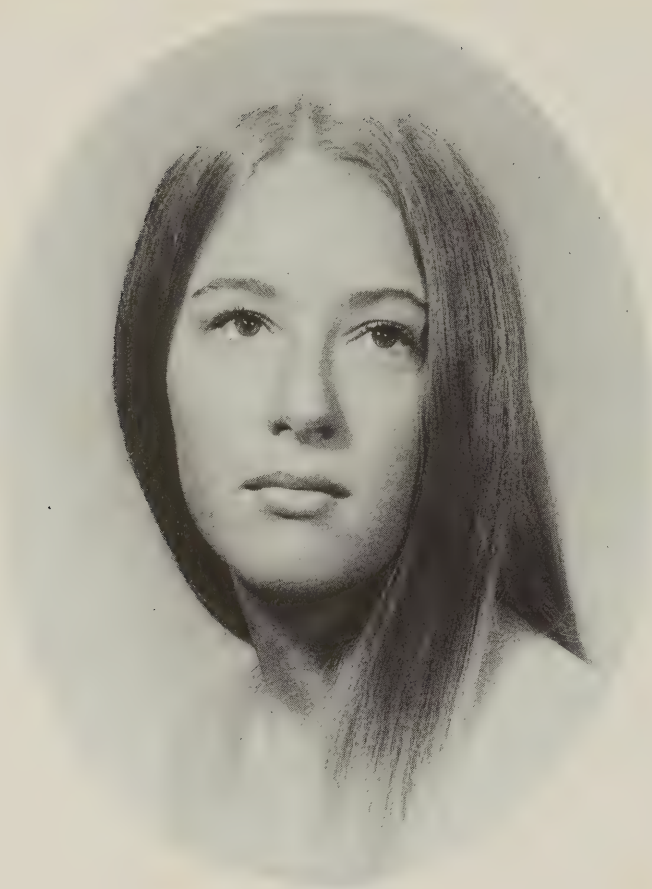

I, Toot, do hereby will to Sally, first of all, my prize possession Frank's "flick." Along with this goes my "ability." However, not completely! To Bat I leave the "top bunk" and whoever dares to take my place. To both Sal and Bat I leave many unforgettable memories and my door open. To Con go memories of S. M. A. or SAM and my first and last date with R. B. To Mary T. I wish that she might some day master the Boogaloo. And now I leave, shedding but a single tear, for I have other roads to travel and my tears will surely be needed elsewhere. To all, I wish all the luck, happiness, and love that life may bring.

Mr. A. Whittemore and Jenny Whittemore

I, Marty (Martha to Marty V.), take all my memories with me to ponder over. To Sybil, I leave my love of French (Thanks to Miss Wilson) and the best of luck forever; to Abby, all the social blunders at the table plus my French genius (?). And to everyone at Fairfax, thanks for the joy and the tears and even the knowledge. You have my love and now my goodbye.

Parting is such sweet sorrow!

Mr. Sam W. Bishop and Martha Wollbrinck

HESTER WYATT

I, Monica Young, do hereby leave to Peggy the thrill of Ring Figure; to Ellen, my talent for eating; to my little sister, a memorable senior year; and to Carol, the trials and tribulations of dating F. M. S. The memories are mine, and I take them as I sadly leave.

Okay, now I'll read you the list of girls to get dates for . . .

Major Robert Hayes and Monica Young

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1964, twelve of our Senior Class found their way to the gates of Fairfax:
Patricia B. came with no shoes, only riding boots
Clare brought a smile and a cheery "hey"
Hudson came with a bottle of peroxide in each hand
Portia came as a soft-spoken encyclopedia
Cherie brought brown dinner plates instead of eyes
Martie M. came with naturally curly hair, and left with it
Dede, we'll all remember, brought her electric guitar
Robin came with an habitual suntan and hair to her waist
Clark came with a powerful pair of lungs
Pritchie brought the sunshine from Florida with her
Sally came with hair-raising tales of Peruvian existence and Monica came with an abundant supply of Revlon equipment.

In 1965 we acquired nineteen more:
Irene came with "Vixen," but she lasted a little longer
Esther was the only nightingale and played the piano like Chopin
"Navy" came saying "Call me Barby"—it didn't work
Susan F. came and started calling people to the 'phone
Annie came with a little stomach, but a big heart
Jacque came as Buster Brown and left as Rapunzel
While Sissy S. came as Rapunzel and left as Buster Brown
Sandy came gracefully dancing
Betsy brought with her a love for other people
Jennie came with her handy sewing machine
Ferna came with ready talons
Gena brought nice clothes and an even nicer laugh
Roughton brought a few left-over tantrums
Sue S. came as just Sue, but seemed to acquire a few more names
Stovall came because Fairfax is less than an hour from some school called U. Va.
Jane came like a prize in a box of Cracker Jacks
Mary W. had a sunburned face and beautiful eyes
Marty W. brought some "non-stop" hair and Hester came with her "lending wardrobe"

In '66, fourteen followed in their footsteps:
Mary B. and Anjo came from Ahoskie—ever heard of it?
Vickie came with several suitcases of hairspray
Lisa brought her pretty face and ready smile
Holly seemed to slip in quietly
But Puddles couldn't have been missed
Helen came with a large supply of granny glasses
Margie came by accident—she thought Fairfax was the training grounds for a certain television program
Linn and Pat L. brought with them the rather unlikely story that they were cousins
Donna came with foot-long, fluttering eyelashes
Marty V. D. came as the most accident prone Pam came with a ready argument or two and Tootie came with her model's face.

As you can see, with a class like this one, we're bound to make history!

PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1968

Ten years have passed since the Class of 1968 left the hallowed halls of Fairfax Hall. The Alums are entering the vast ballroom here at the Waldorf Astoria in New York City. Betsy Linder, the former class president and now president of the Sweet and Lovely Air Freshener Company, has just risen to call the roll. It should be interesting to see what pursuits our classmates have followed.

It appears that, for many girls, married life was the answer to their dreams. Sissy Spruance has just walked in with hubby Paul McCartney, followed by Mary Weir and Warren Beatty. Seated at a table for two are Bickie and Cherie, the perfect married couple. Not far from them is Donna Muller, who, when not teaching math at Vanderbilt, is the happy wife of Craig and the mother of three little ballerinas. There's Betty Pritchard walking around with that same old chip on her shoulder. She has just joined Jacque Greer (who appeared in a brief bikini), and it is obvious that Jacque's love for the beach will never grow Rusty. Several of our classmates have become career girls. Irene Bell was the first to arrive. It seems that she is working in a pet shop which sells Rens for the right Price. Sandy Kotarides owns and manages the Kotarides School of Dance and Etiquette. Martie Mehler deserves a Pat on the back for working with Bob Hope and his troop entertaining troops overseas. Tootie is featured in this month's Harper's Bazaar modeling her own fashions. Glad to see that Pam White, now a famous horse trainer, could get away from her riding school in England. That prosperous group of Wyatt, Boone, and Foster are now owners of a company that devises handy techniques in opening padlocked glass doors. Anne Gonder is now the slim, shapely dietitian at Fairfax. Clark has become head of the nursing department at Walter Reed Hospital. Holly Compton, a world famous model, has just entered with six poodles leading her. Gena is making money with her "Priceless Clothes by Price." Navy is working in the North manufacturing denim uniforms. Fishing around in the punch bowl is Lisa, head of the Fish Department in the National Zoo. Monica is visiting with several young men whose services she will need as President of the Select-A-Mate Computer Dating Service. Having just received the Nobel Prize in Science for her development of the pill for instant weight loss, Clare will be arriving late. The art world has Dede to thank for her fine reproduction of Van Gogh. Vickie has not drifted away from her dear old alma mater, for she is now teaching Algebra II at Fairfax. Having just emerged from her laboratory under the ocean, Sally Snyder has become world-famous as a marine biologist. Robin Peck is now president of another AA organization, the purpose of which we cannot disclose.

As our gazes wander across the ballroom, we see Ferna with her year-long tan, and Margie, who is becoming very nervous for fear that one of her seven husbands might show up. Anjo is excitedly telling everyone how she quit smoking, while Linn has just disclosed the publication date of her book, The Rewards of Being Frank.

Martha Wollbrinck, famed French-speaking actress, sends her best wishes and apologies for not being able to attend. Unfortunately, she is too busy making a movie on the Riviera to slip away.

Portia slinks in looking like the cat that ate the canary. It seems she has attained her life ambition; she is now the star of the daytime drama, "Dark Shadows."

Esther Brown has also been drawn toward the theatre. She is now one of the brightest lights on Broadway.

Helen and Barbara are both in the military service. Helen is the housemother for Junior School at AMA and Barbara is social director at Fishburne.

Some of the alums should receive credit for their devotion to their hometowns. Tricia Ligon has just been named "Miss Raleigh," and Jane is avidly raising horses outside Staunton. Then there is Cissy Stovall who is reportedly putting Stovall, Mississippi up for sale.

Although everyone was welcome to bring her children, we were somewhat surprised when Debbie walked in with several little ones trailing behind her, all wearing fashions by Jennie.

The happy chatter is interrupted for a moment when Betsy rises to read a Red Cross Citation to Puddles Carter who passed away from hunger while swimming the length of the Panama Canal. Then our attention is diverted as we see Patricia Brown bound across the screen of the TV set. It seems she has been asked to begin the Olympics with a cheer.

Our reunion was almost complete except for Susan, who was suffering from a nervous ulcer, and Marty, who had just dived into a pool that was—unfortunately—empty.

She knows it's great at Fairfax Hall for room cleanups, for dirty sneakers—even for cleaning combs and brushes.

And Jacque knows Fantastik is best because more people buy it. She knows the president of the Texize Company pretty well, too!

So if you want to know what makes Fantastik the No. 1 spray cleaner in the U.S., ask Jacque. She'll tell you all about it.
